It's the end of the world as they know it, but the worst is still to come.

From the pages of the breakout horror anthology Hello Darkness comes a chilling tale of apocalyptic dread from Eisner Award–winning creators Garth Ennis and Becky Cloonan.

When the unthinkable becomes reality, a group of friends in New York City must confront their worst fears—the outbreak of nuclear war. As society collapses around them, each must choose a different plan for survival at the end of the world. But with the fallout of nuclear destruction unfolding in real time, survival may be the most terrifying fate of all.

The War delivers a raw, unflinching look at modern annihilation and human desperation in the face of global catastrophe—just as timely as it is terrifying.

What happens when the boy who never grew up finally has to?

Years after the glory days of swashbuckling adventure, Peter Pan is still clinging to the past while Neverland evolves without him.

Now with childhood wonder on the brink, long-buried tensions erupt between old enemies and former friends alike after a disastrous encounter with his aging nemesis, Captain Hook.

Meanwhile in London, Wendy Darling resists her own impending adulthood as familial and societal expectations clash with her dreams of an independent future.

As their desires create a mirror of fantasy and reality, a mysterious new villain—the Phantom King—emerges to threaten Neverland's very existence and Peter is forced to confront something that's possibly more terrifying than this dangerous new threat...is this truly the final threshold of their adolescence? Or can Wendy and Peter find each other for one last, grand adventure?

Acclaimed writer Dan Panosian and rising star artist Alessio Avallone bring a bold reimagining of the beloved classic with The Last Boy in this emotionally charged and visually stunning new series!
